5. There are five battalions. The 1st Battalion is a replacement battalion set up only during the summer, to which reservists were detailed for refresher training during the summer of 1953. The 2nd, 3rd and 4th Battalions are regular battalions, each with three rifle companies and a machine gun company, each company having 80 to 100 men. The machine gun company has 12 Skoda machine guns; the rifle companies are armed with 40 Skoda, Soviet-type rifles, 10 long-range sniper rifles, 35 machine-pistols and four light machine guns. Commander of the 3rd Battalion is 1st Lt. Dimitrov Kozel, 36 years old, a heavy drinker, who is hated by the political officer, but is protected by the fact that he is an active Communist. The 5th Battalion is a reserve unit which is called into existence only in the summer and for training.
6. The regiment has 13 to 15 passenger cars and 47 to 50 various trucks. Only the heavy weapons units have full motor equipment.
